Each year the provincial council presents the Ontario Provincial Social Justice Award to a CWL member who has given extraordinary service in her community. The nominations can come from any council, whether parish, diocesan or the provincial. The award is usually presented at the annual provincial convention in July. Since conventions were cancelled this year, the recipient was given her award at a special ceremony at her home parish.

The Ontario Provincial Social Justice Award for 2020 was presented to Miranda Pinto of St. Barnabas Parish in the Toronto Diocese.
